

Acceptable First Year English Courses from Canadian Post-Secondary Institutions 2024/2025

English courses should be offered through the English department and should consist of a full year or two semesters of literature, or one semester of literature plus one semester of composition.

Literature in this context means fiction, poetry, drama, and/or some literary non-fiction genres, whereas composition means a course dedicated to instruction in academic essay writing.

Each of the English courses should have a workload equivalent to similar courses at UBC, including at least one research paper of five or more pages, an additional essay assignment, and preferably a final exam.

Please see the Prerequisites section of our Admission Requirements page to view a list of courses that are not accepted, even if offered through an English department.

Other English courses may be accepted. If a course you are interested in meets the criteria outlined on our website and does not appear on this chart, please email admissions.md@ubc.ca to confirm acceptance.

Composition courses are indicated in orange. However, not all composition courses may be marked as such, particularly courses that are not currently offered. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that at least one literature course is taken.
